

Press Release:

Marc Hoffman, Music Supervisor of the upcoming movie, The Mill, announced on Monday, March 20 that the song, "I Been Busted," from Jake Bartley's new country album, will be featured in the movie. Presently in post production, the film is scheduled to be released in October, 2006. It is a thriller about eight college students at a party that turns into a nightmare in an old abandoned mill. Austin Hines, Austin James, Tiffany LeShai McMinn, Robert Rainbolt, Leah Marie Parker, Blaire Welch, Kelly Ray, Catori Swann, and David Byers star in The Mill, which is directed by Grainger Hines.

Jake Bartley's new CD, "Strings to My Heart" includes the song that will be featured during the movie. Also on the CD is Jake's familiar favorite, "The Way I Live" and the title song, "The Strings to My Heart," in addition to seven other original songs written by Hack Bartley, one original by Jake Bartley, and an old favorite with Jake covering George Strait's, "Amarillo By Morning." The CD will soon be available for sale.

